

MONEY IN BANK

Gives you a financial standing, and a financial standing contributes largely to your success in life.

Open an Account with us today

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

NOGALES, ARIZONA

Assets Over $2,000,000.00

New Fall Stock

—OF—

Blankets and Comforts, Mattresses and Beds

We Are Agent

For the "Bain Wagon" and "U. S. Wind Mills."

Our Prices Are Right

"See us First"

GEO. B. MARSH, Inc.

LOUIS LOOS, MANAGER

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.

We handle a complete line of Lumber, Sash Doors, Lime, Cement, Douglas Plaster, Corrugated Iron, Builders' Hardware, in fact everything to build with.

J. D. Halstead Lumber Co.,

T. M. FORD, Manager

Successors to Nogales Lumber Co.

THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG STORE,

Phone 671 Morley Avenue P. O. Box C.

NOGALES, - - - ARIZONA.

To the Public:

We offer exceptionally liberal inducements to those who like to do their trading at or near home and avoid delays.

Best Quality, New and Selected Stock, the largest on the border, Purest Drugs most efficient clerks and prompt personal attention to all phone, mail and express orders.

YOUR MONEY BACK IF NOT SATISFIED.

A trial solicited from new customers as we are able to hold all our old patrons with above tactics in our business.

Respectfully,

C. H. HECTOR, MANAGER.

The Border Vidette.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

One Year.....$2 00
Six Months.....1.50
Three Months.....1.00

IN ADVANCE

SEPTEMBER 18, 1915.

LOCAL NEWS.

Don Ramon Vasquez is able to be out.

Is the United States going to recognize Carranza?

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Bates of Douglas now make Nogales their home.

Don't forget the Santa Cruz County Fair at Sonoita on October 8 and 9.

Road Bond election, Saturday, October 23rd, next. Don't forget the date.

Yesterday the saloons on the Mexican side of the line were again opened.

Pete Etchell is a visitor in the city from the Mansfield Camp near Patagonia.

Wednesday Herbert Wood left for Texas, where he will enter the A. & M. College.

Postmaster C. L. Fowler has taken up a homestead west of Nogales a few miles.

Joe Thompson is here from Cananea, for a few days visit with his mother and brother.

Sol Levy has taken his family to Tucson to live. Can't get a house in the "bloomin' town."

Today is Yon Kipper, the day of atonement observed throughout the world by all good Jews.

Mark Lulley is again able to circulate among his old friends, after having been confined to his home.

Captain John Cady has been here several days from Patagonia, visiting his son John, the plumber.

W. E. Karns, junior member of Karns Bros., Inc., returned Wednesday from a business visit to Phoenix.

Captain John Cady of Patagonia, is in Tucson arranging to have published his "Arizona's Yesterday."

Mrs. George Mason has almost fully recovered from her recent illness, to the delight of her numerous friends.

Dave Loeb's handsome new brick cottages, corner of Terrace avenue and Crawford street, are nearing completion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller were county seat visitors Monday and Tuesday from their ranch near old Fort Crittenden.

Sam Heslet is up from Suitana. From Nogales he will go to Los Angeles to visit Mrs. Heslet and Master Desmond.

Both Superior Judge W. A. O'Connor and Justice of the Peace Watkin Gittins, are reported on the sick list.

Don Cirilo Ramirez, confidential man for Governor Maytorena, returned to Nogales last Tuesday from the coast.

Tuesday Judge A. S. Henderson, of Patagonia, was a business visitor in the city. He returned home Wednesday.

Late Thursday night Mr. John Henderson and Brisco Kibbey arrived from Magdalena for a few days visit in the city.

Monday A. K. Dalton, successful dry farmer, was a visitor here from Sonoita. Said rain was badly needed in his section.

Yesterday the work of improving and beautifying the city park was started, under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce.

Going to the Settlers' Annual Reunion at Fruitland Hall, today. Everybody guaranteed a fine time. A dance will be held in the evening.

Hon. Theo. Gebler, who for the past two months has been visiting the coast, will return home next week. He is now in Los Angeles.

Don Arturo Morales, one of Sonora's wealthiest, most prominent citizens, is back from the coast. He has business interests here.

Monday evening Mrs. C. L. Fowler delightfully entertained the North End Bridge Club, at her pleasant home on North Grand avenue.

John Higginbotham, the "Laird of Carbo," writes from San Francisco, that he is well and happy. He'll return some time next week.

Colonel Maden of The Cave Club is today wearing a broad smile.

Manager McCollum of the local telephone system, is back from Safford, where he spent a couple of weeks with his mother.

Wednesday Immigration Inspector Burnett came up from Tucson bringing with him two undesirable Mexican women, deported to Mexico.

Robt. Mitchell, manager and C. T. Tonkin, superintendent of La Cobriza Mining Company, returned the forepart of the week from Los Angeles.

R. J. Lester, the well known coffee buyer, is back from Veracruz, where he had been on private business. He returned to Nogales via Havana.

A. E. Saxon is enjoying the "simple life" at the ranch of his brother, Harry J. Saxon, west from Nogales a few miles, on the international line.

Captain J. D. Milton, U. S. immigration inspector, stationed at Fairbank, was a visitor here the forepart of the week, on his way home from Tucson.

Work on the addition to Judge Gittin's residence, corner of Elm street and Sonoita avenue, is progressing nicely, under the judge's personal supervision.

Contractor W. J. Murphy has just completed making greatly needed improvements in Joe Berk's Modern on Morley avenue. The work is first-class.

Attorney M. C. Little is back from Los Angeles, and is busy attending to important legal business for California clients in connection with titles to Sonora lands.

Nathan Leeker's new residence on north Morley avenue, when completed will be one of the finest of the many handsome homes recently erected in Nogales.

This morning the Maytorena soldiers in Nogales, Sonora, celebrated yesterday's victory over General Calles' army, which is said to be retreating towards Agua Prieta.

J. R. Halstead of the J. D. Halstead Lumber Company has this week been on the coast, enjoying a visit with Mrs. Halstead who is visiting there with relatives and friends.

Henry Levin and Augustine Escobosa are visiting in Los Angeles, with their families. They motored from Nogales, to the City of Angeles, via Tucson, Phoenix and Ashfork.

Henry Proctor, uncle of Geo. and Frank Proctor, the young men held in the county jail on a charge of having shot to death their step-father, Thomas, Elias Jr., is here from Tucson.

General J. M. Leyva, commander of the Maytorena garrison in Nogales, Sonora, is an old-time newspaperman, who for a number of years published a newspaper in Los Angeles.

Haythorne White, the automobile man is back from California. Says he and his family will in future make Nogales their home. White also says this easily is the best town he's seen in a coon's age.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Eilers, nee Miss Regina Herrera, and Roy Herrera, are again occupying the pleasant old Herrera Place on Morley avenue. They returned last week from the coast.

E. K. Cumming, the insurance man, is back from the expositions and a visit to the Grand Canyon. He was accompanied by Mrs. Cumming, who will later return home. She remained in Los Angeles.

The Misses Carrie and Eva Slocumb, two charming young ladies of Bloomington, Ind., en route home from California, are enjoying a visit at the pleasant home of County Attorney and Mrs. S. F. Noon.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Montezuma building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty. adv.

Yesterday the second case of the State vs. R. L. Slaughter, Jr., connected with the crossing of the Slaughter cattle into the United States, was continued for thirty days, and today Attorney Richie will return to Tucson.

Francis Duffy, son of Judge F. J. Duffy, who for a month past has been doing field work with the state engineers, has returned from Phoenix. Next week Francis will resume his studies at the University of Arizona.

J. R. Halstead, accompanied by "Satan," his fine bull pup, returned Thursday from the coast.

Tom Frasier, experienced mine contractor, has gone to the Goldconda mines near Kingman to accept a position, under Superintendent Joe Miller, well known in the Patagonia and Santa Rita district. Tom took his family with him.

This week Don Ramon Vasquez, proprietor of The Red House, has been confined to his home, threatened with pneumonia. His host of friends throughout Arizona and northern Sonora join in wishing for his speedy recovery.

Thursday while walking on the sidewalk on Elm Street, a boy on a bicycle knocked down and painfully injured Frank O'Brien, the mining man. Frank was taken to the Sisters Hospital where he is now under the care of Dr. Purdy.

The carload of beans and ammunition shipped in bond from Juarez to Governor Maytorena at Nogales, Sonora, is still being held on the American side of the line, pending instructions from Washington. American soldiers are guarding the car.

Charles Reinbold, proprietor of Hotel Sonora, after spending several days in Nogales, left for the copper camp Thursday. Mr. Reinbold is the owner of valuable mining properties in the state of Sonora, from which he is mining shipping ore.

Governor Hunt has named Saturday, October 9th, as "Fire Prevention Day," and has issued a proclamation urging that all cities, towns, schools, fraternal and commercial bodies co-operate with the state department in the observance of the day.

Fred. VanMourick, popular manager of the Nogales and Sonora branch stores of the Sonora News Company, returned Tuesday from a delightful outing on the Pacific coast with Mrs. VanMourick and their two bright children. The family will return later.

Fred. Alford, of the Sonora Copper Company, who the forepart of the week returned from an automobile trip to Noria and La Cobriza, says he did not see a soldier, either going or coming. He was accompanied by Bob Mitchell, Jr., of the La Cobriza Mining Company.

It's now a fight to the finish between the Carranza and Villa forces in Sonora. Governor Maytorena is in personal command of his army and General Calles is in charge of the Carranza forces. The two armies number between eight and ten thousand men, about evenly divided.

Mrs. I. E. Bowers of Noria and Mrs. John Henderson and child of Magdalena were among the refugees from Magdalena, who arrived in automobiles last Thursday from the south. They are guests at the National Hotel. All the refugees reported everything quiet in their section.

The Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Monday night decided to improve the City Park, and Messrs. Dave Loeb, Earl Hammack and Dr. Gustetter were appointed a committee of three to raise sufficient money, by popular subscription, to make the greatly needed improvements.

A. S. Noon, the contractor, has been awarded the contract for putting in the new sewer system at the United States military camp. Contract price, $1200. Wednesday a force of three hundred soldiers was busy excavating for the new system which will connect with the city sewer.

Mexico's Independence Day passed quietly in Nogales. In the evening there were two open air band concerts, one in the city park by the 12th Infantry band, the other in the Nogales, Sonora plaza, by Governor Maytorena's band. Many Americans went to the plaza across the line to enjoy the music.

All American consuls in northern Sonora and Chihuahua have been ordered by the government to withdraw to the United States because of danger of border uprisings and the inability of Mexican military to protect them. At this writing, American Consul Simpich, at Nogales, Sonora, still remains at his post.

Notwithstanding Consul Simpich's advice to Americans to keep out of Mexico at this time, Frank N. Cox and P. J. Coleman, two well known Nogales cattlemen have gone south to the Carbo district, Sonora, on cattle business. They are making the trip by automobile, driven by Mr. Coleman, and expect to be absent from Nogales two weeks.

Jimmie Richie, after spending a couple of days at the county seat, has returned to the Three R. Mine, Colonel R. R. Richardson's copper bonanza. While here Jimmie had his face "fixed" Dentist White did the job.

Robert Mitchell, manager of the La Cobriza Mining Company, has resigned his position, to take charge of the great smelter plant at Cananea. Bob Mitchell is one of the most thorough smelter men in the country. He is a guest at the Montezuma hotel.

Thursday Hon. H. J. Saxon, whose ranch is out on the line, rounded up and brought in Pedro, Jose and Daniel Torres, who had in their possession three horses, supposed to be stolen property. The Mexicans were headed for the Mexican line when Mr. Saxon took them in charge. Two of the men were armed. They are in the county jail.

Tuesday Jack King's big auto truck arrived from Hermosillo, being accompanied by Mr. Scott the well known automobile man of Hermosillo, Frank Davis and Tom Bently, two mining men. The truck will be taken to Mr. King's copper camp in the Ajo mountains, Pima county, where a large amount of development work is being done by Mr. King and C. P. Reiniger.

Last night a special military train arrived from the front, with a number of prisoners captured by Maytorena soldiers. Several wounded Maytorena soldiers were also brought in. The Villa army is now stationed at Santa Barbara, about sixteen miles east of Nogales. General Calles' army is at Martinez. A big battle is expected tomorrow between the two armies now facing each other.

A wireless (?) message, dated Ashfork, Sept. 14th, was received here from Commodore Zellner, of the good ship Helmit, as follows: "Splendid voyage. Admiral fine snape. Able Bodied Seaman Escobosa fell overboard three times. Nearly all killed today by foolish Ford." The Helmit is bound for Los Angeles, having left the port of Nogales on Sept. 11th. Pilot Marquez was at the wheel.

Judge Frank J. D. Duffy, member of the Regents of the University of Arizona, has returned from Tucson where he attended an important meeting of the Regents. Numerous friends and prominent Democratic leaders throughout Arizona, of the judge, are urging him to be a candidate for governor of the state. "Square Deal Duffy," would make our glorious state a mighty good chief executive.

The pleasant home of Councilman and Mrs. W. G. Bowman, last Wednesday evening was the scene of a delightful surprise party, given by the Misses Tillie and Edna Bowman, in honor of William Cavanaugh, efficient chief clerk at the Sonora News Company. Willie says birthdays are a fine thing to have. He'll not soon forget the party given Wednesday evening in honor of his birthday anniversary. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Bowman.

Monday evening Mrs. B. H. Mobley entertained her school class in honor of two popular young members, Miss Arrieta Smith and Mr. Charles Jones, who will leave shortly to take up their studies, Miss Smith in Virginia and Charley in California. Those present were: Arrieta Smith, Martha Chatham, Gladys Keyte, Veda Rodgers, Jewell Smith, Mabel Wylie, Mary Glore, Dorothy Poole, Maurine Glore, Grace Chatham, Eugenia Mobley, May Glasen; Mesdames Ada Jones, B. H. Mobley; Messrs. Jones, Peck, Cox, Chaplin, Smith, Darling, Finch, Bergendahl and Mobley.

George and Frank Proctor are in the county jail, where they are being held for the murder of their step-father, Thomas Elias, Jr., of Sopori. The boys will have their hearing next week. Two days after Elias and Mrs. Charles Proctor, mother of Elias boys, were married in Nogales, Elias was shot and killed early last Monday morning. Immediately after the killing, George Proctor went to Amado and telephoned to Sheriff McKnight that he had shot Elias and wanted to surrender. Accompanied by Sid Simpson, the sheriff went to Sopori and Tuesday returned with young Proctor. The same day Frank Proctor was arrested in Tucson, and he too is now in the Santa Cruz county jail awaiting a hearing before Judge Gittins. Duffy & Richie have been engaged to defend the Proctor boys, who refuse to make any statement.